

Moving People and Cattle (Continued)

Name _____

After the completion of railway lines, cowboys drove herds of cattle to railroad towns. From there the cattle were shipped onward to stockyards. Use the map on page 56 and a ruler to answer the questions.

1. The Shawnee Trail began in San Antonio and ended at _____.
2. Where did the Goodnight-Loving Trail lead to? _____
3. The Chisholm Trail began in San Antonio and ended at _____.
4. The _____ Pacific Railroad ran west from Promontory, Utah.
5. Which railroad began in Duluth and ended at Seattle? _____
6. Name the railroad that stretched from New Orleans to Los Angeles. _____

7. The _____ Railroad crossed Wyoming.
8. Name the railroad which traveled up the western coast of California. _____
9. Use a ruler and the scale to measure these approximate distances.
 - A. The Chisholm Trail – from San Antonio to Abilene _____
 - B. The Shawnee Trail – from San Antonio to Kansas City _____
 - C. The Great Northern Railroad – from Seattle to Duluth _____
 - D. The Central Pacific Railroad – from Promontory to Sacramento _____
 - E. The Southern Pacific Railroad – from New Orleans to Los Angeles _____
10. The _____ crossed the state of Nevada.

Use with page 57.

Railroad Lines and Cattle Trails

